
January 2017

Jenkins Memorial Fund

20th: Closing date for applications for up to five Jenkins Scholarships, awarded annually in honour of Roy Jenkins and linked to Europaeum universities.

Steering Group Meeting

27th: Meeting to review the consortium's academic policy, convened under Professor Wim van den Doel (Leiden) in Oxford (details tbc).

February 2017

Graduate Workshop

16th-18th: Workshop for 20 select Europaeum Graduates and young scholars on Challenges to European Ethics and Values: What is it to be a "good" European today? to be held at Charles University, Prague, with speakers including Prof Lord Raymond Plant (Oxford), Prof Jan Sokol, Prof Vladimír Benáček, (Prague) and many others.

Europaeum Lecture

23rd: Mr Will Hutton, Principal of Hertford College and former Editor-in-Chief of Economist and The Observer, to lecture at the Graduate Institute, Geneva. Speaking on, After Brexit: What next for Europe and the World?, and also to run graduate seminar.

March 2017

European Policy Seminar

6th-8th: Graduate workshop to be held in the European Parliament and NATO in Brussels, on European Policy-Making, involving EU officials, experts, policy-makers, co-ordinated with IEP-Lisbon (details tba).

Scholarship Schemes

Oxford-Geneva and new Oxford-Prague Study Bursary winners to carry out research in Oxford, Geneva, and Prague universities, respectively each receiving, €1,000 bursaries for short term study visits.

April 2017

Lecture Series

Launch of annual European History lecture series, to be held at Oxford History Faculty and linked to MA in European History & Civilization (details tba).

Spring School

20th-22nd: For select graduates, to be held in Oxford at Maison Française on Religion, Conflict, Secularism and Tolerance: 500 years after Wittenberg, linked to Europaeum joint MAs (Havel Programme in European Politics and Society and Europaeum MA in European History and Civilisation), with keynote experts (details tbc).

Europaeum Lecture

Lord Patten, Europaeum Trustee, former EU Commissioner and Chancellor of Oxford University, to lecture at LMU Munich on After Brexit: Europe, Germany, and the UK, followed by Graduate Seminar (details tbc).

May 2017

Federalism Workshop

Federalisms East and West, third in Europaeum conference series on Europe, North America and India, following previous events in Oxford and Delhi (details tbc).

Havel Dialogue Project

Prague conference on the Václav Havel Dialogues Project, with Europaeum leadership and support, led by Pavel Seifter (Prague) and Jacques Rupnik (Paris) (details tbc).

June 2017

Forum & Graduate Debate

26th-28th: Annual Estoril Forum hosted by Institute for Political Studies, Catholic University, Lisbon, with European graduates as part of international debate on the theme of Borders, Boundaries and Beliefs.

July 2017

Summer School

For 30 selected Europaeum graduates from all member universities, on The Crisis of Democracy with keynote experts and with debates, role play, working groups over six days (details tba).

September 2017

Europaeum Meetings

29th: Steering Group Meeting to review the consortium's academic policy. Annual Europaeum Academic Council meeting, chaired by Dr Andrew Graham (Oxford), and Board of Trustees, chaired by Dr Pierre Keller, to review current and future Europaeum policies, followed by 25th anniversary dinner in Balliol College, all to be held in Oxford.

Annual Conference

30th: Academic Freedom in European Higher Education, part of the celebrations of the 25th Anniversary of the foundation of the Europaeum (details tba).

October 2017

Graduate Workshop

Europe and the Media for 20 selected Europaeum graduates from member universities with keynote experts (details tbc).

November 2017

Classics Colloquia

23rd -25th: XIVth in series of Classics events, to be held on a theme in Bologna, with 30 select graduates (details tbc).

Europaeum Lecture

Professor from the Graduate Institute, Geneva, to speak in Oxford (details tbc).

