

EVROPAEVM Diary

January 2009

International Conference

9th-11th January: Liberalism in East and West, organised by European Studies at Oxford, in Oxford with Europaeum participants from Oxford Leiden and Bologna, and speakers worldwide including Professors Steven Lukes, Ronald Dworkin (NYU), Pierre Rosanvallon (Collège de France), Ivan Krastev (Sofia)

Research Project

9th January: Europaeum Research Group on Liberalism, led by Professors Michael Freeden (Oxford), Henk te Velde (Leiden), and Paolo Pombeni (Bologna) meets.

Jenkins Scholarship

23rd January: Final deadline for Jenkins Scholarship applications to Oxford.

February 2009

New Publication

Annual Report to be published.

US Junior Fellowship

February: Closing date for applications to new Europaeum Transatlantic Junior Fellowship in USA.

Europaeum Lecture

12th February: Professor Vera Gowlland-Debbas, Professor of Law (Geneva) will lecture in Oxford on The Middle East Crisis and the Challenges for International Human Rights, with Professors Vaughan Lowe and Avi Shlaim (Oxford) at 17.00 in All Souls College, Oxford.

March 2009

Oxford Geneva Bursaries

Announcement of Oxford and Geneva research scholars winning Europaeum Study Bursaries for 2009.

Europaeum Review

Next issue due to be published.

New Publication

Graduate papers based on Europaeum workshop on European Migration in the 21st Century held in Prague due to be published with CEU Press.

Europaeum Website

Launch of new-look website also with new themed search engine.

April 2009

Research Project

Cultural Difference in Europe series led by Dr Nick Bunnin et al due to continue (t.b.c.) with Links to Prague, Krakow, Madrid and Paris.

May 2009

Research Workshop

7th May: Europaeum research workshops on Elections and Democracy planned in Madrid.

Europaeum Lecture

7th May: Europaeum Lecture planned at Complutense University, Madrid

Annual Meeting

7th-8th March: New Europaeum Academic Council due to hold inaugural meeting in Madrid.

Research Group

Interim report due from Diversity in European Universities research group expected, coordinated by Professors Herb Marshall and Anthony Heath (Oxford).

Research Workshop

Europaeum Scholars to discuss meanings of Europeanisation Process in Oxford, with Europaeum support, coordinated by Dr Martin Conway (Oxford)

International Conference

29-30th May: Conference on The Paradox of Sovereignty in Europe Today, in Prague with speakers from Oxford, Leiden, Prague, etc.; coordinated by Professor Luboš Tichý (Prague) linked to Czech EU Presidency.

Europaeum Lecture

Professor Margaret MacMillan (Oxford) due to lecture on Lessons – 90 Years After Versailles, at the Graduate Institute, Geneva.

June 2009

Graduate Workshop

Krakow students plan international Europaeum workshop, coordinated through European Studies Centre at Jagiellonian University.

Research Workshop

22nd-24th June: MA students due to take part in three-day research workshop European Political History in Lisbon

Graduate Debate

25th-27th June: Europaeum graduates take part in international conference on European Security, in Lisbon in partnership with the Catholic University to debate the question of Do we Need a Global Alliance of Democracies?

July 2009

Graduate Workshop

Students plan research workshop on Sacred Art and Architecture in Europe, following 2008 Bonn Summer School, planned in Italy, coordinated by Dr Luigi Bartolomei (Bologna).

September 2009

Summer School

Annual Summer School on Ethics and European Policy-Making, to be held at Paris I, with graduates from all 10 Europaeum partners invited, led by Professor Farhad Ameli (Paris I) as Academic Director.

Europaeum MA

New MA students due to start in Leiden on joint European History and Civilisation Programme.

October 2009

Research Project Group

Follow-up Meeting of Europaeum Research Group on European Political Concepts, led by Professors Michael Freeden (Oxford), Bo Stråth, and Henrik Stenius (Helsinki) in Berlin.

November 2009

Policy Forum

Forum on Ageing in Europe: Challenges for Democracy and Technology, with experts from the US, EU, government, academia and business in Oxford (t.b.c.)