

Oxford

Leiden

Bologna

Bonn

Geneva

Paris

Prague

Madrid

Helsinki

Krakow

EVROPAEVM 5th Economic Workshop

Game Theory and Applications in Problems of International Economics

University of Helsinki

27-28 October 2006

Supported and organised by the Europaeum, the Department of Economics of the University of Helsinki and the Helsinki Center of Economic Research (HECER), in cooperation with the Department of Economics of the University of Paris I, the Department of Economics of the University of Bologna, and the Institute of Economic Studies, Charles University, Prague.

Venue: Economicum, Arkadiankatu 7, University of Helsinki, Finland

Date: 27 October, 2 p.m. – 28 October, 6 p.m.

Attendees: 20-30 professors, researchers and PhD students from Europaeum Universities

Hosting Institutions: Department of Economics, University of Helsinki;
Helsinki Center of Economic Research (HECER)

Organisers: Professors Tapio Palokangas and Otto Toivanen, assisted by Juha Tervala

Working language: English

Senior participants: Professors Hubert Kempf, University of Paris I; Gianpaolo Rossini, University of Bologna; Frantisek Turnovec, Charles University in Prague.

Programme: 3 sessions with 6 presentations per session, plus a social dinner on 27 October and lunch on 28 October.

Call for papers: All papers concerning game theory and applications – including topics on new political economy, institutional economics and trade theory – are welcome and refereed.

Papers should be sent in .PDF no later than July 31 to both Tapio Palokangas (tapio.palokangas@helsinki.fi) and Juha Tervala (juha.tervala@helsinki.fi). Accepted papers will be notified by 21 August. Some participants will be asked to serve as discussants: potential discussants will be notified by 31 August. The Europaeum will support accommodation for two nights (27 and 28 October) and meals during the conference for accepted participants.

This workshop has the double aim of advancing research and providing a venue to foster further joint research among Europaeum Universities, for both young PhD laureates and senior staff.